

Hello! And welcome to Coding Dojo. As you begin your journey here, your Career Services team wanted to provide a roadmap of what to expect from us and how we're here to support you along the way. Our goals are to help you target your career goals in tech, prepare you to be job-hunt ready on graduation day, and to provide you mentorship and coaching throughout your job search.

Below you will see the mandatory action items, as you have opted into Career Services, for you to complete throughout the Bootcamp. Don't worry, we will provide further details and reminders!

Milestones	When
First Career Services Action Item (Assignment #1): Let's take a look at your current job-hunting materials: LinkedIn, resume, GitHub. Make sure you have these created, and we will go over this during your CS 1:1. (Just hold on to this, you will be getting a reminder to just have this done prior to your next assignment)	1st day of week 6
Career Services Power Hour (Assignment #2): Meet with your assigned Career Services Manager for your first one to one (in person or virtual pending location) You will be going over your assignment number 1 at this meeting. (You will be getting a reminder to finish this assignment prior to your next upcoming assignment)	1st day of week 8
Half way there! (Assignment #3): Share the industries, cities, and job titles that you're most interested in! There's no wrong or right answer to start, please send this assignment over to your Career Services Manager that you met during your one on one. (You will get a reminder to finish this assignment prior to your next assignment)	1st day of week 11
Are you job ready? (Assignment #4): Send your Career Services Manager your final version of your resume/LinkedIn/GitHub. At this point you should have included everything you have done during your journey at Coding Dojo up to this point. (You will get a reminder to finish this assignment prior to you next assignment)	1st day of week 14
Congratulations! Let's find a job! (Assignment 5): The Monday after graduation you will receive your final assignment and instructions on how to utilize Career Services and be self-sufficient in your job search.	Monday after Graduation

Ongoing Coaching: Whether you're submitting a job application to your dream job or in the final interview round, our Career Services Managers are resources for you to prepare, practice, and get feedback. Make sure you circle back and do regular check ins with your Career Services Manager; we get involved as much as you proactively reach out and wants us to get involved!	Post-Graduation

Remember to always check back in with your Career Services Manager and Coding Dojo Alumni Page on LinkedIn to stay up to date on opportunities such as mock workshops, events, and more. We will always be your additional support in marketing you to our partnerships, guiding you through your interviews, and helping you take your first step into the tech industry.

Participation Requirements for Career Services

1. Delayed tuition payments during bootcamp will block your access to career services. Once your tuition status is in good standing, the career services team will review your case to approve your continued participation in career services.
2. Responding promptly to outreach attempts from the career services team is a requirement of the program. During the training program, if you fail to respond to 3 outreach attempts from your Career Services Manager, your participation in the career services program will be suspended.
3. As part of the Coding Dojo program you're eligible to receive full career services support for 6 months after your graduation date. During this period, if you do not respond to 3 outreach attempts by your Career Services manager, or if you have no contact with your Career Services Manager for a period of 30 days or more, then you will be considered opted out of the Career Services program. This does not mean that you will not be eligible for career services support in the future, however your Career Services Manager will make no further outreach attempts. Should this occur and you contact career services for support, the degree of support provided will be at the discretion of your Career Services Manager and will depend on your level of commitment to your job search and the career services program.
